

City of Wabasso
City Council
Monday, December 19, 2022
Special – Truth in Taxation Hearing
6pm

The meeting opened with the recitation of the pledge of Allegiance.

Mayor Atkins called the meeting to order with Council members Steve Burns, Roger Baumann and Brad Salfer present.

Administrative Assistant Joanne Krause and Street Maintenance Supervisor Jim Jenniges were also present.

Mayor Atkins opened the Truth in Taxation Hearing. A budget update dated December 14, 2022 from Clerk/Treasurer/Administrator was presented to the council. Mayor Atkins opened the hearing for public comments. There being no public comments there was a motion by Salfer, seconded by Baumann to close the hearing.

Atkins – yes; Burns – yes; Baumann – yes; Salfer – yes.

Motion by Salfer, second by Burns to adopt Resolution No. 32-2022 adopting the 2023 Operating Budget and certifying the 2023 property tax levy as follows:

| | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|
| General Tax Levy | $ 373,666.00 |
| 2022 GO Improvement Bonds | $ 48,246.00 |
| 2013A Refunding Bonds | $ 23,300.00 |
| 2017 Tax Abatement Levy | $ 28,333.00 |
| 2017 GO Tax Abatement Bonds | $ 9,352.00 |
| EDA Levy | $ 5,000.00 |
| Total Tax Levy | $ 487,897.00 |

Atkins – yes; Burns – yes; Baumann – yes; Salfer – yes.

The council held a brief discussion regarding the status of the snowmobiled/golf cart/ATV ordinance.

Motion by Salfer, second by Burns, to adjourn at 6:15 p.m.

Atkins – yes; Burns – yes; Baumann – yes; Salfer – yes.

Joanne Krause
Administrative Assistant